BACKGROUND: On June 27, 2023, a similar ordinance was presented to City Council. At that time, floor amendments were introduced, and the proposed was approved. It was recently determined that due to the floor amendments, the final version of the ordinance was never executed and published within the required timeframe. The version presented for approval today includes the floor amendments from June of 2023. It is being brought back before Council so that execution and publication can occur within the required timeframe.
